WHAT THIS LOOKS LIKE

Close-up magic. Table to table.

I work the room with sleight of hand that happens inches from people's hands. No stage, no announcement, no setup. I show up, introduce myself, and make your slowest Tuesday more interesting.

THE OFFER

- Strolling close-up: table to table, group to group
- Or seated: 30 min set for rotating groups (great for event nights)
- One-off event nights or recurring weekly/biweekly slot
- Available for private buyouts and ticketed experience nights

WHY IT WORKS

People who get a trick done for them buy another drink and tell their friends. It gives your staff something to talk about. The photo or video from a magic moment at your bar is worth more than the booking fee.

LOGISTICS

- Packs in a jacket pocket. No gear, no setup, no strike.
- Works with your floor staff, not around them
- Adapts to the room and the crowd
- Rates on request

Magic, dumb jokes, and an orange with attitude.

GOOD FIT FOR

- Brewery and taproom event nights
- Speakeasy and cocktail bar atmospheres
- Private dining experiences and wine bars
- Restaurant launch parties and industry nights

BUNDLED OPTIONS

Close-up strolling pairs well with a 20-30 min stage show for events that want a bigger moment. Ask about combination rates.
